

From: Liam Cross
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 2:45pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I'm bothered by the language in section III(J)(2) against not-for-profits. Why does Microsoft get to treat these worse than it has to treat for-profit competitors? This shouldn't be written into the settlement, especially since Microsoft's biggest OS competitor is Linux, a free piece of software.

-William Cross
4100 Bison Ave #52A
Irvine, CA 92612
wcross@uci.edu